CONDITIONS OF SALE

The purchaser hereby agrees with seller as follows:

1st. This order is not subject to countermand, after acceptance, except upon the payment by the party signing it of 10 per cent. of the sum of the order as agreed.

2d. Bateman Manufacturing Company shall not be liable for damages on account of shipments delayed by fire, the elements, strikes, difficulties with workmen, accident to machinery, inability to obtain material or other unavoidable contingencies.

3rd. The prices quoted herein apply to this order only and are subject to change without notice.

4th. That all implements hereby ordered are bought subject to the usual manufacturer's warranty — "to do good work when properly set up and operated" — and failing to do this after the purchaser has used his best efforts, he will give immediate notice to Bateman Manufacturing Company, and allow time for instructions to be given, or, if necessary, the sending of a person to put it in order; failing then to make the implement work, it may be held subject to the order of Bateman Manufacturing Company; but under no circumstances will the undersigned return goods without direction from Bateman Manufacturing Company. In case the fault is not with Bateman Manufacturing Company, but through neglect to follow directions, or carelessness in using, the purchaser agrees to pay for the time and expenses of the person sent to put it in order.

5th. It is expressly agreed that the right and ownership in all goods shipped during the term of this contract, or the proceeds of same, shall be vested in the seller, and subject to their order until full payment shall be made for said goods. Also, that the seller may withhold shipments because of unfavorable financial information.

6th. This contract may be determined by the seller, without notice, if the buyer does not engage actively in the sale of "Iron Age" tools; or for any other reason which may appear to the seller to be sufficient cause for such action.

7th. All claims for shortage must be made within five days from receipt of goods or no allowance will be made.

8th. All repairs are to be charged and paid for unless claim is made with order that such repairs are to replace defective parts.

9th. The order given herein is subject to these conditions and the terms noted on page 2.

NOTICE

A clear shipping receipt for goods relieves us from all responsibility and places it with carriers.

If a shipment reaches destination either incomplete or damaged, decline to receive it until your freight agent notes in writing on the face of the expense bill the exact shortage or the exact damage, as the case may be.
